San Francisco, California 94107

Dear Mr. Clayberg:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you of favorable action on your application and welcomes you to corporate membership in The Institute.

You will soon receive some literature about The Institute and a lapel emblem. In approximately one month, you will also receive a certificate of membership, either directly from The Institute or through formal presentation by your Chapter.

You are assigned to the Northern California Chapter and California Council of the AIA, effective November 19, 1976.

I sincerely hope you will take an active part in your Chapter and its professional development and community service activities. Many of the policies and programs which advance our profession are developed in this way. Such activities give you, as a professional, the opportunity to develop leadership capabilities and to help the AIA meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for the architectural profession.

On behalf of our national staff, William L. Slayton, Executive Vice President, joins with me in extending welcome, congratulations and best wishes for success. Please feel free to call on any of us, or the Chapter or Institute officers and staff, at any time the need arises.

Sincerely yours,

Louis de Moll, FAIA
President

DEAR MR CLAYBERG:

You're aware, I'm sure, that as a member of the AIA you belong to the largest and most prestigious organization for American architects. As a member you're also aware that the Institute offers a wide range of exclusive programs, products, and services especially designed to make your professional life more rewarding. As an AIA member you can benefit professionally, financially, and intellectually -- whether you work in a private practice, a corporation, education, or government. Please take a look below at some of the most recent programs designed to serve your special needs and then join us for another year by returning your payment in the envelope provided. As we look forward to 1988, I know you'll want to continue your investment in your future and the future of your profession.

Sincerely,

Ted Pappas

INFORMING THE PUBLIC

AMERICA BY DESIGN

The PBS television series, supported in part by the AIA, will promote awareness of architecture and public appreciation of architects as professionals.

PUBLIC AWARENESS ENHANCEMENT

The AIA continues to expand its efforts to increase public awareness and understanding of architecture and the role of architecture in shaping the environment.

REGIONAL URBAN DESIGN ASSISTANCE TEAMS (R/UDAT)

Award-winning program aids communities with urban design and planning.

ADVANCING THE PROFESSION

STATE GOVERNMENT LIAISON

Helps reach the legislators who make decisions directly affecting your practice, on issues such as procurement, liability, licensing, and taxes.

EDUCATION INITIATIVES

Programs planned for 1988 include a comprehensive review of prior studies of architectural education and continuation of the Institute Scholars program.

THE FUTURE OF ARCHITECTURE

Vision 2000 will bring into focus technological, business, humanistic, and sociological trends that will influence architecture in the early 2000s.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

AIA has recently lobbied successfully to retain rehabilitation tax credits and to provide federal grants for historic preservation programs. We are leading a coalition to provide federal funding for national infrastructure needs.

SERVING MEMBERS

NEW SOFTWARE AVAILABLE

For practice management and extended services; new MASTERSPEC software for marketing, facility management, real estate analysis and energy analysis.

PEER REVIEW PROGRAM

Measure your firm's effectiveness in management, technical competence, and marketing.

SISTER FIRM REFERRAL SERVICE

Introduces you to firms of comparable size and scope with whom to share information.

DEVELOPMENTAL CLINICS

Firms of similar scope and size address topics of "Increasing Project Productivity" and "Ownership Expansion and Transition."

OFFICE SAVINGS

Purolator Courier offers reduced rates for AIA members enrolled in their discount program. Reductions of telephone rates during business hours may soon be made available to members.
