My dear Mr. Cresson:-

By direction of the Secretary I advise you with regret that your Institute membership was discontinued on January 1, 1919, on account of non-payment of dues.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. William P. Cresson,
Department of State,

March 12, 1920.

My dear Mr. Cresson:

At the meeting of the Executive Committee on March 8, correspondence concerning your Institute status was presented, and it was resolved that you be reinstated and your resignation accepted, effective December 31, 1918 - provided accrued dues to that date, $30.00 for 1916, 1917 and 1918, are paid.

Upon receipt of your check we will take the necessary action at the Octagon and advise you formally to that effect.

By direction of the Secretary.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Sir:

Referring to correspondence with Mr. Gantinger of an earlier date & through whom I asked the Executive Committee to arrange for the payment of dues in arrears and the acceptance of my resignation. Referring also to your letter of March 12th regarding the

Sam Mathis - which I discovered last week in my brother's unused letter box at the Philadelphia Racquet Club.

I beg to enclose herewith a check for $60.00 representing dues for '16 '17 '18 - I should also be obliged if you will bring to the attention of the Committee the fact that during this period I was engaged in active service in Russia at the American Embassy - and in the

A. E. F. (18 mos service) If any rebate is allowed under the rules of the Institute - I should be pleased to hear from you further in this respect.

Very truly yours

June 10, 1920.

My dear Mr. Cresson:-

The pressure of convention business has delayed a response to yours of June 1.

This will acknowledge the remittance of $80, which brought your Institute membership in good standing for a three year period ending December 31, 1918.

Your foreign service was called to the attention of the Executive Committee, but no deduction was authorized on account thereof.

In accordance with the resolution of the Committee, this will advise you that your resignation as an Institute Member in good standing was accepted, effective December 31, 1918.

Trusting that some day you may consider a permanent reinstatement, I am

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.
