Dear Mr. Dinger:

It is with regret that we have received your recent letter advising you wish to terminate your membership.

A condition to resigning in good standing is payment of outstanding AIA and local dues and assessments. Inasmuch as your 1972 AIA dues are unpaid, it will be necessary to terminate your membership for nonpayment of dues. Notice will be sent to you when this is done.

We are pleased to note you expect to rejoin when circumstances permit. We hope this will be soon, and we thank you for your past support.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Cynthia:

In my letter dated December 18, 1973, I implied that Fred Dinger was a former member of your Chapter. (I don't know where I got that impression.)

He was formerly assigned to Pasadena and Adele Elliott has informed us that he left in good standing as far as Chapter dues are concerned.

In your memo dated December 26, 1973 (in response to mine of the 18th) you stated that he owed Southern California Chapter 1972 dues. This cannot be because he was assigned to Pasadena. You mentioned that he also would have to pay 1974 dues but this, I guess, was on the assumption that he would be reinstated in 1974 - which he was not.

In any case, we leave it in your good hands to straighten out his local money situation.

Please advise whether your Chapter approves of reinstating him membership in the Institute and your Chapter. As indicated to you earlier we are holding a check for the necessary AIA dues and fee and all we need is your approval.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Director

Blind note to Adele:        Thanks so much for your letter dated February 12.
We've been working all along under the mistaken notion that he was formerly assigned to Southern California. He was not terminated by resig-
