Dear Mr. Arnhold:

We are in receipt of the application for membership of Jesse Garnett Dixon, Jr., with his check for $20.00 attached.

The application is complete except for two items:

There is no indication in your letter that Mr. Dixon has been favorably recommended for election by the North Texas Chapter. Please find enclosed a supply of the required, printed form of Favorable Recommendation for use with applications for corporate membership in The Institute.

Also, chapters are now required to secure certification of the registration of the applicant to practice architecture. Forms for this use are enclosed. When additional supplies are needed let us know and they will be forwarded.

Mr. Dixon's application will be held in abeyance until these records are received.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to
