Mr. Frank J. Dusane, A.I.A.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Frank:

I am very grateful to you and Mrs. Dusane for coming to The Octagon last Friday to help us out with our French visitors. Your presence and participation were great contributions to the success of the affair.

Despite the heat and humidity, our French visitors enjoyed themselves as evidenced by the length of the party. I saw a number of the French people the day after the party and without exception, they expressed themselves with great gratitude and enthusiasm. It gave them an opportunity to meet American confreres on a pleasant and social basis and they had an insight of American life which otherwise they would not have enjoyed.

With many thanks to you for your help, I am

Cordially,

Edmund R. Purves, F.A.I.A.

[Archivist's note, April 2012: The Sept. 21, 1959, issue of MEMO, the AIA newsletter, p. 3, says, "Recent visitors to the Octagon [AIA national office] include a Yugoslav Housing Studies team, a Chilean Building Construction team, a group of Spanish architectural students, [and] an organized tour of French architects and their wives. Individuals from many other parts of the world constantly stop in to pay their respects and to seek advice. Additional countries on the visitors' list include Japan, India, Israel, Belgium, Uruguay, Germany, Morocco, Australia, England, Iran, Italy, Sweden, Holland, China and Korea."]
