Mr. Walter T. Williams, Secretary
New Hampshire Chapter, A.I.A.
Rochester Hill Road
Rochester, New Hampshire

Dear Mr. Williams:

On behalf of Secretary Wilson I am responding to your inquiry of March 12th concerning the pending applications of Messrs. Theodore Postaa and Edward H. Dunham, Jr., for corporate membership in The Institute and the New Hampshire Chapter.

Immediately upon receipt of these applications, we mailed to the Secretary of the New Hampshire State Board of Registration for Architects, the questionnaires to be filled out with information concerning the status of these architects as registered to practice in the State.

Unfortunately, the returns of these questionnaires were not made until late in February, and as the applications are not complete without this data, we had to hold up consideration until the necessary information was received.

It appears that there was a change in the Office of Secretary of the State Board, which probably accounts for the delay in returning these questionnaires.

The applications are now ready and will be presented to The Board of Examiners at its meeting to be held this afternoon.

If all goes well, their elections will be made effective as of March 20, when notification will be made to the new members and to the Chapter.

Sincerely yours,

(Miss) Florence H. Gervais

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Your letter written on March 20, confirming my membership in the A.I.A. has been received, and I am very happy to have been accepted.

At the same time, your letter mentioned a certificate of membership, which was to be sent me shortly, and which has not yet arrived.

My mail here is subject to occasional sidetracking, and perhaps this has occurred to the certificate. If such is the case, I would like to know of it in order to initiate a search for the document.

Will you do me the favor to inform me as to whether or not the certificate has been sent to the address on this letter head?

Thank you

Very truly yours

Robert L. Durham
FAIA President
The American Institute of Architects
1735 New York Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006

Dear Mr. Durham:

My apologies for not writing this letter some months ago. It was my intention to do so, but as so many times with all of us - good intentions do not always result in swift action.

I have held membership in the AIA for some fifteen years. This string is now ended with my resignation. I find it increasingly difficult to justify the ever-rising dues along with all the other expenses connected with staying alive in the country these days. After all - a man's family must take precedence over any organization. Last December, I had the privilege of listening to your speech at the British Columbia Institute of Architects annual dinner in Vancouver. At that time I came to this decision, upon hearing your statement that it was your intention to elevate the AIA dues structure again during your term.

You may note on the letterhead, that I am now a corporate member of the AIA. I certainly feel the need and the desire for association with fellow architects. This organization manages to accomplish something in this line without the high dues burden now imposed by the AIA. Thus my change in membership. Again, please accept my regrets for the delay in notifying your office.

Very truly yours

The fact that it is accepted while you are indebted for AIA dues (and possibly Iowa Chapter dues as well) will not act in any manner as a barrier to your readmission except that the dues in question will have to be paid or otherwise settled upon reapplication.

We appreciate the time you have taken in expressing your thoughts about AIA dues. We are calling your comments to the attention of former President Durham, Director Rex L. Becker and the Iowa Chapter.
