Dear Mr. Erskine:

Please forgive the delay in replying to your letter of March 2, but, as you have already been advised, I was absent attending the A.I.A. Convention in Houston.

There is no A.I.A. plan whereby members can join an associated hospital service. I suggest that you get in touch with the American Hospital Association, 18 East Division Street, Chicago 10, Illinois, as they may be able to answer your question.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

In November of last year the Reno Office of the AIA gave me an Emeritus Application Form on which the figure of $15.00 was listed as the cost of AIA publications. Obviously it was an old form.

The Reno Office now tells me that the new figure is $ 40.00. They said you had written to me and asked for the additional $ 25.00. No such letter came to me or my office.

I enclose my check for $ 25.00 to clear this matter up. Please let me know when my new status is approved.

Sincerely,

Graham Erskine, A.I.A.
