Dear Mr. Wilson:

I was very pleased to receive your letter of June 19, 1959, informing me that I have been accepted as a corporate member in the American Institute of Architects. I am looking forward to membership and thank you very kindly for your assistance.

However, I would like to bring to your attention the fact that there has apparently been a mistake in the spelling of my name. My last name was spelled "Favot" instead of "Favrot" in your letter. I wanted to bring this to your attention in case my name has also been misspelled in my records.

I trust that this correction will be made and thank you again for your assistance.

Yours very truly,

Henri Mortimer Favrot, Jr.
