New York City, NY 10022

Dear Mr. King:

The Board of Directors of The American Institute of Architects takes pleasure in informing you of favorable action on your application and welcomes you to membership in the Institute.

In the near future, you will receive some literature about The Institute and a lapel emblem. You will also receive a certificate of membership, either directly from The Institute or through formal presentation by your Chapter.

You are assigned to the New York Chapter and New York State Association of Architects of the AIA, effective July 26, 1978.

I sincerely hope that you will take an active part in your Chapter and its professional development and community improvement activities. Many of the policies and programs which advance our profession are developed in this way. Such activities give you, as a professional, the opportunity to develop leadership capabilities and to help the AIA meet the challenges and opportunities which the future holds for the architectural profession.

In behalf of our national staff, David Olan Meeker, Jr., Executive Vice President, joins with me in extending welcome, congratulations and best wishes for success. Please feel free to call on any of us, or the Chapter or Institute officers and staff, at any time the need arises.

Sincerely yours,

Elmer E. Botsai, FAIA
President

Obituary: Stephen King

Oculus regretfully announces the untimely death of architect Stephen Paul King on September 29. Mr. King was 44 years old and resided in Manhattan. Born in Rochester, NY, he attended North Carolina State University, where he received a B.A. in philosophy in 1968 and a B.Arch. in 1971. He first worked for I.M. Pei & Partners, and in 1977 joined Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, where he rose to the position of Associate Partner and Director of the Boston office. In 1986 he joined Swanke, Hayden, Connell Architects, where he became principal in charge of architectural design. In 1988, NYC/AIA awarded SHCA an Architectural Design Citation for its Columbus Circle Office Building.

Mr. King was Secretary of the NYC/AIA in 1988. The Chapter sends its earnest condolences to his wife, Catherine; their children, Valerie and Justin; and his parents, Lily and Richard King.

NYC/AIA Dues Increase

After long and diligent discussion at the Chapter open meeting on September 12, the membership voted resoundingly for a dues increase. The increase will take effect with the 1989/90 fiscal year beginning October 1, 1989, and will be reflected in forthcoming invoices of dues. We urge you to respond as quickly as possible to these invoices. The Chapter has been given the assurances of the Institute that the sale of Architecture will allow them to hold current national dues levels. The approved 1989/90 Chapter budget will appear in the December Oculus.

NYC/AIA Firms Sweep NYSAA Design Awards

Chapter firms received all 11 design awards conferred by the New York State Association at its annual convention in September at The Sagamore, Lake George.

Excellence in Design Awards were given to James Stewart Polshek and Partners for Centennial Hall, Barnard College; Stephen Falatko Architect for a private residence at Carpenter Hill; Haines Lundberg Wachler for a U.S. Postal Vehicle Maintenance Facility; and Robert A.M. Stern Architects for a residence at Calf Creek.

An Honorable Mention in Design was received by Emery Roth & Sons for 17 State Street; by Pasanella + Klein for an Art Collector's Apartment; by Davis Brody & Associates for the Celeste Bartos Forum, New York Public Library; by James Biber Architect for Plus One Fitness Center; by Richard Dattner Architect for Primary School 234; and by Cooper, Robertston & Partners for a private residence in Easthampton.

A Citation Award was given to Hardy Holzman Pfeiffer Associates for The Brooklyn Academy of Music Majestic Theater.

The jury, chaired by Steven L. Einhorn, of Einhorn Yaffe Prescott, Albany, included Bruce S. Fowle of Fox and Fowle Architects and Robert Landsman of Swanke Hayden Connell.

Fifth Avenue Banners Available

You may recall the terrific banners which flew over Fifth Avenue during the 1988 Convention. They are approximately three feet wide by five feet high, with a diagonal grommeted band on the top edge for hanging. The banners say, "New York Welcomes the American Institute of Architects, NYCAIA88!" and are made of blue, purple, orange, and fuchsia heavy-weight nylon fabric with white lettering. These handsome banners are in immaculate condition and are now available for purchase, on a first-come basis, at $275 each. This special price includes shipping and handling. You may send a note indicating quantity and place of delivery. Since colors are limited, please indicate your color preference. (We reserve the right to substitute.) Enclose a check, mail it to the Chapter, and then prepare a location for hanging! Any questions? Call Judy Rowe at 838-9570.

NYC/AIA Exhibition Opens

Since 1983, New York's high school students have been invited annually by the Hudson-Shatz Painting Company to submit paintings on a given theme. The winning selection is then painted on the side of a donated building by the Hudson-Shatz painters. In addition, the winning artists receive monetary awards donated by Hudson-Shatz. In its seventh year, this year's winning mural, by Haeun Kim from Bayside, was painted on a five-story building at 12 West End Avenue. A NYC/AIA exhibit will feature this year's entries along with a retrospective of the previous award winners. Urban Center Gallery III. November 7 through December 10.

Honored

Joseph Bresnan will receive the Municipal Architect of the Year Award from the Municipal Engineers of the City of New York on November 17.

NYSAA Officers and Third Regional Director Elected

Chapter Vice President Douglas F. Korves was chosen as President-elect of NYSAA. Doug will be serving under Lee Bearsch (Binghamton) in 1990, and will be President of NYSAA in 1991. Other officers elected were Ronald J. Goodstein (Long Island), VP/Legislative Affairs; Donald C. Wilhelm (Central New York); and Richard S. Kruter, Secretary/Treasurer (Queens).

This year the New York Region edged out Texas to qualify for a third Regional Director on the AIA Board. Thom Penn (Long Island) was elected and will begin his three-year term in December. He joins L. William Chapin (Rochester) and Michael Maas (New York).

During the annual convention, NYSAA Director and NYC/AIA Past-President Randolph R. Croxton presented the State's Honor Awards.
