Re: Application for Membership Emeritus
Marie Frommer, AIA

Dear Maureen:

Have just received an Application for Membership Emeritus from Marie Frommer. According to our records, Miss Frommer joined the Institute on February 5, 1953.

Would greatly appreciate it if you would waive the requirement of fifteen (15) years, consecutive, in the Institute, and take into consideration that Miss Frommer is only a few months short of this requirement to become eligible.

While Miss Frommer did not give her age in her Membership Application and while she did not disclose it in my recent telephone conversation with her, I can well assure you that she must be 70 or very close to it. She is not in good health (has trouble with her heart) and, for some time now, has been able to do very little in the practice of architecture.

Would very much like to see her elected to Member Emeritus status as of December 31, 1967, which is the end of the Institute's fiscal year.

Many thanks for your cooperation.

Kind regards.

Sincerely yours,
