THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

August 13, 1975

Dear Member:

According to the provisions of a Bylaw change voted by delegates to the 1972 AIA Convention, any member who fails to pay the entire amount of his regular and/or supplemental dues for the current year on or before June 30 must be considered in default, and notified of impending termination. This also applies to members who have paid their regular dues but who have failed to report that they are not liable for supplemental dues when this is the case.

The Bylaws provide that the membership of any member who is in default for non-payment of dues as of August 31, must be terminated, provided that the member has been notified in writing by the Secretary at least 30 days prior to the termination action. After August 31, in order to be reinstated, it will be necessary to pay not only the dues in arrears, but also a reinstatement fee of $20.00.

Our records, which reflect dues payments received through July 31, 1975 show your 1975 regular and/or supplemental dues still unpaid. If you believe these records to be in error, please reply at once to the Office of the Controller, The American Institute of Architects, 1735 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006.

The invoice(s) enclosed indicates that you have either not responded to previous notices, or that you have not paid regular and/or supplemental dues. The deadline for receipt of these payments is August 31, 1975.

While this letter will serve as the required notice of impending termination, I hope you will treat it as a reminder, and that you will send your check along with the enclosed invoice right away. Your membership is valuable to the Institute, and I know that your officers and directors join me in hoping that you will be able to maintain it without interruption.

Sincerely,

Hilliard T. Smith Jr., FAIA
Secretary

Re: Membership

Gentlemen:

In answer to your letter of August 13, 1975 I had previously written a note to you indicating that I am retired from the practice of architecture and wish to terminate my membership with the AIA.

However, I do plan to do some minor work in my profession for friends, etc., and I will of course, remove reference to the AIA from my stationery.

Sincerely yours,

Paul V. Long
