To the Board of Directors of
The American Institute of Architects:

Gentlemen:

As I have been a member of the Institute for over thirty years and contributed to its activities financially during that time, I feel that I have done my share and regret that I must now ask to be retired, which is my privilege under the By-laws,

Sincerely yours,

Joseph P. Loud

Dear Mr. Loud:

This will acknowledge your letter of February 7th,
concerning retirement.

It will be brought before the Executive Committee, at its meeting in late March, and we will advise you promptly thereafter.

We also acknowledge with appreciation your gift of any credits on the books of the Institute, on account of reduction in dues for previous years.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Loud:

Your application for retirement was in good time for the March meeting of the Executive Committee, but apparently we were amiss in not securing from you all of the details.

Prior to the next meeting - on May 20th - please send the following information: ¹ age; ² engaged in any other business or trade; ³ in the practice of architecture?

These are routine items, which the Executive Committee must have under the By-law provision. The answers can be noted on this letter and initialed by you, as a matter of convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Mr. Loud:

At the May, 1935, meeting of the Executive Committee of The American Institute of Architects, it was directed that your name be placed on the retired list of the Institute, and that you be exempted from the payment of further dues to the A.I.A., effective December 31, 1935.

This action, however, does not affect your relationship with the Boston Chapter.

By direction of the Secretary.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary

Gentlemen:

I have a letter from McLean Hospital addressed to Miss Mary Loud, 82 Pinckney Street, Boston, enclosing a copy of a letter they had written to you stating that Miss Mary Loud, 82 Pinckney Street, Boston could give you information relative to Mr. Joseph P. Loud.

I do not know where they got this information as there is no Miss Mary Loud of 82 Pinckney Street, Boston. Miss Mary Loud never lived at 82 Pinckney Street and is now married and lives in Maryland.

I am the executor of Mr. Loud's estate and if there is any information you wish, you might correspond with me.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of September 10th, advising that you are Executor of the Estate of Mr. Joseph P. Loud.

Mr. Loud was a member of this Institute, and as we had not been informed of his death we were attempting to learn of his whereabouts through the hospital which was the last known address we had for him.

We are indeed sorry to hear of his death, and have so noted on our records.

Very truly yours,

Assistant Executive Secretary
