Permit me to acknowledge the notation appearing on your statement for dues, and to say that we have no record of ever receiving your resignation.

The resignation, to become effective, must come through the Executive Committee of the Chapter. See marked excerpt from the Institute By-Laws attached.

There will be a meeting of the Institute Executive Committee in March and if you will act promptly the matter can be placed on the schedule of that meeting, after which time we shall advise you concerning the action taken.

Sorry if I have caused you any inconvenience. I had intended to write you before this of my change of mind but hope that this letter will reach you before any action on my resignation has had a chance to take place.

Gentlemen:-

On February, 1929, Mr. David D. Weitz and myself wrote a letter informing you of our resignation from the American Institute.

We also explained the fact that up to the time we resigned, our dues were paid in full for the year of 1929. This morning we received another notice from the Institute for dues for 1930-31. We cannot understand this as we have not been members of the Institute for the past year.

Will you please see that this matter is corrected on your books?

Very truly yours,
THALHEIMER & WEITZ.

Dear Mrs. McCoy:

This will acknowledge your letter of January 3rd, with regard to the ^{proposed} ~~alleged~~ resignation of Messrs. Thalheimer and Weitz from the Institute and the Philadelphia Chapter.

We have made a search of our records here, as we have also received a similar letter from them, but can find no correspondence other than that in connection with their delinquent dues in February and March of 1929.

We will not make any response to these members until we hear further from you in the matter.

If it is decided to accept their resignations, however, please let us know by the 1st of March, as the Executive Committee will meet about the 7th and 8th of March, and any action could be taken on the matters at that time.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.
