Dear Ed:

The Institute Board and Officers are most grateful for the time and energy you have put into the Committee on Home Building Industry.

Unlike most professional societies, The Institute depends upon its committee members, their inspiration, judgment, and achievement, to carry forward our aims for the continued welfare of the profession and the public.

The debt owed to you committeemen is one that cannot be repaid; it can only be acknowledged with an expression of the deepest gratitude of us all.

Please do not get the idea that the end of this particular task puts you into retirement. Far from it. You are being granted a brief respite which may be interrupted at any time by a call again to active duty on The Institute's firing line.

With deep appreciation,

Sincerely yours,

Philip Will, Jr., F.A.I.A.
