Gentlemen:

In reference to the enclosed statement for my 1963 dues, I have been told that after one is 75 he can retain his membership without the payment of dues.

I would like to know if this is correct and if so then I believe I will be eligible as I will be 75 in May 1963. I closed my office and retired in 1958.

I will appreciate receiving the above information so that I will know what to do.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Sieben:

We have received your note written on your 1963 Regular Dues Invoice regarding your previous letter of April 3rd and the possibility of your being elected a Member Emeritus.

One of the requirements for Membership Emeritus is that the member has completed at least 15 years of Institute membership and inasmuch as you were admitted to corporate membership on September 20, 1949, you have not yet fulfilled this requirement.

On April 18th we wrote to the Kansas City Chapter ascertaining if the Chapter would consider recommending that the requirement, as explained above, be waived in your case - which permit your election, and as soon as we receive a reply further action may be taken without delay.
