March 4,
~~February 15,~~ 1918.

My dear Sir:

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective February 15, 1918.

You will receive under separate cover the Proceedings of the Fiftieth Convention, and the Year Book for 1917, which in addition to the membership records contains the official documents of the Institute relating to matters of professional practice.

The enclosed statement for dues should receive early attention, as the engrossed Certificate of Membership is not sent until the dues for the year have been paid, and election becomes void for non-payment within three months of this date.

This will also advise you of your assignment to the Philadelphia Chapter, to whose Secretary a copy of this letter has been sent.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Institute at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we will be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Edward P. Simon,

THE PHILADELPHIA

Edward P. Simon, Architect, Dies

Edward P. Simon, widely known architect and former Federal Housing Administrator for Eastern Pennsylvania, died yesterday at his summer home in Brant Beach, N. J. He was 71.

Mr. Simon designed the Municipal Stadium in South Philadelphia and the Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Building, in addition to other central city structures.

EDWARD P. SIMON

He was graduated from Central High School in 1896 and four years later from Drexel Institute of Technology, where he was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Science and Commerce for outstanding contributions to his profession.

Mr. Simon received additional training in architecture and engineering in the offices of Dull and Coates. In 1903, he began his career as a member of the firm of Caldwell and Simon.

RECEIVED DREXEL AWARD

In 1934, he received the Mary S. I. Drexel award presented annually to the evening school graduate who accomplished most in his work.

He designed the Abraham Lincoln Senior High School, the Solomon Solis-Cohen School, Strawbridge and Clothier store, and Lit Brothers store and warehouse.

His other works include the 69th Street Terminal, Drexel Institute of Technology, Van Rensselaer Dormitory for Women, Curtis Hall of Engineering, the Meade Memorial at Washington, D. C.; the First Camden National Bank and Trust Co. building, Camden, N. J., and the office building of the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Eddystone. During his lifetime he designed buildings valued at more than $150,000,000.

TRUSTEE OF INSTITUTE

He served as trustee of Drexel Institute since 1927; was a member of the executive committee; chairman of the committee on buildings and grounds, and chairman of the committee on library, museum and art gallery.

He also acted as consultant at Eaglesville Sanatorium, St. Luke's and Children's Medical Center and St. Luke's Hospital, in Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. Simon was a Mason and a member of the American Institute of Architects, Architectural League of New York, the American Society of Professional Engineers, and the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Societies of Architects. He lived at the Sheraton Hotel.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Edith M. Simon, and two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Esten Stevenson, of Rye, N. Y., and Mrs. Marion Darby Willis, of Browns Mills, N. J.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 4 P. M. at Oliver H. Bair's, 1820 Chestnut st. and will be followed by private interment.
