ALBERT SPEIDEN, A. I. A.

December 28, 1931.

Mr. Frank C. Baldwin,
Sec'y. A.I.A. Octagon House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir;-

In reply to yours of the 7th. inst. would say that several months ago this old ship met with a severe financial reverse which threw her on her beam ends, so much so that she has not yet resumed her even keel.

It is my desire to remain a member of the A.I.A. and if you will let my name remain on the roll a while longer, I think things will be all right.

Very truly yours,

Albert Speiden

Dear Mr. Speiden:

This will acknowledge your recent letter with regard to your status as a member of The American Institute of Architects, and your indebtedness for your 1931 dues in the amount of $25.00.

The Board at its November meeting authorized the Secretary to carry into 1932 those members who are not indebted, except for the year 1931. Therefore, no action will be taken adversely affecting your membership, without ample notice at the end of 1932.

We hope very much that business will improve before the close of the year and that you can then send a check covering dues for at least 1931.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary
