My dear Mr. Zinek:-

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective July 1, 1921.

You have been assigned to the Brooklyn Chapter as an Institute member in good standing therein, and the Secretary of the Chapter has been so notified.

The enclosed statement for dues should receive early attention, as the engrossed Certificate of Membership is not sent until dues for the first year have been paid. No charge has been made for the first half of the current year.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Secretary at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise we shall be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

December 10, 1923.

Dear Mr. Zink:-

It was with regret that the Treasurer had to report to the Officers and Directors of the Institute at their last meeting a large amount still in default covering payment of dues for the current year.

The Directors discussed the matter seriously as the money is needed to meet the balance of our obligations for the year and moreover it seemed to them not quite fair that members who have paid their dues are not only meeting their own obligations, but assisting to pay the cash expense necessary to supply the Journal, etc., to those members who have not paid their dues. The Directors passed the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that those members delinquent for more than one year on January 1, 1924, be given until February 1, 1924, to make payment in whole or to reach some agreement with the Treasurer as to future payment. Otherwise the Institute membership of each delinquent coming under this resolution shall be terminated on March 1, 1924, upon notice to him from the Secretary to that effect.

I am sending you this as an appeal to make a remittance to the Treasurer of $50.00, including the dues for 1923 which, as you know, were payable eleven months ago.

I trust that you will write me promptly and also frankly if for any reason you cannot pay all or any part of the amount at the present moment.

Hoping that you will do your part to help the Treasurer make a better report at the next meeting of the Board of Directors, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Treasurer.

Mr. Arthur R. Koch,

My dear Mr. Koch:-

Just previous to receiving your letter of the 21st of December, I wrote to Mr. Bergstrom relative to my delinquency in the Institute.

The same is not an oversight on my part; but a lack of the wherewithall to meet the obligation. Conditions here have not been and are not what might be called encouraging insofar as building construction is concerned.

The aftermath of the boom is still being felt very seriously among the architects and contractors, the result being a decided lack of cash. While my bills receiveable are high there is no way of collecting for everyone is in the same boat.

I would regret very much to be suspended, but under the circumstances such will have to be the case if you so rule. When conditions are better I will then take up my indebtedness.

Sincerely yours,

Anthony De H. Zink

Dear Mr. Zink:

Your letter of December 22nd was received promptly, and we did not respond, immediately, in the hope that business conditions would improve, and that you would be in a position to send a check, at least covering the dues for 1927.

The present indebtedness is $50.00 for the years 1927 and 1928.

No action affecting your Institute and Chapter membership will be taken without full notice to you, and at the direction of the Treasurer we will carry your name as long as the rules of the Institute permit.

Will you not make a special effort to take care of the indebtedness for 1927 within the next two or three months? Such action would bring your account current, except for 1928, and would be gratifying to the Institute, for the Institute does not want to lose your membership.

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Treasurer.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of November 30, relative to my indebtedness to the Institute.

Several days ago I wrote to the Brooklyn Chapter, of which I am a member, to suspend me from their list until such time as I would be able to meet my indebtedness to it. Conditions here in so far as architecture is concerned are and have been extremely difficult for the past two years. As a result dues and such have had to wait.

While I very much regretted my action, I did not feel that I wanted to incur further indebtedness. If the Brooklyn Chapter would entertain a similar proposition to the one stated in your letter, I would be glad to reconsider my request for suspension.

I am a firm believer in such organizations as the A.I.A. and have worked hard in our State Association and Local Architectural League, being secretary and treasurer of both.

I will be glad to mail you my note payable December 31, 1929, also a note to the Brooklyn Chapter for the same period if such can be arranged.

Very truly yours,

Anthony Dett. Zink.

Dear Mr. Zink:

Your letter of December 4th is at hand and I wish to assure you that the Treasurer, and other Officers of the Institute, want to extend the fullest measure of cooperation to the member who has encountered financial difficulties. Of course the By-Laws of the Institute are definite in fixing the procedure.

To meet those requirements, we suggest that you send a note covering the amount of the indebtedness to December 31, 1928, namely $50.00, and payable not later than December 1, 1929. A blank note is enclosed herewith.

We are assuming responsibility for keeping this matter pending until January 20th, in the hope that we may hear from you by then.

Upon receipt of a note as suggested, we can mark your account as paid and restore you in good standing in the Institute and the Chapter.

My dear Mr. Bryson:

Mr. Anthony D. Zink, of Seybold Building, Miami, Florida, at present assigned to the Brooklyn Chapter, is indebted to the Chapter for dues.

Mr. Zink has suffered from the conditions in Florida and we are endeavoring to aid him in getting his status with the Brooklyn Chapter adjusted so that he can transfer to the Florida Chapter and take part in the organization of a new Chapter with Miami as headquarters.

Mr. Zink has given active support to the Florida Chapter, attends its meetings, and will make a valuable member in that State.

The Florida men will appreciate it if the Brooklyn Chapter would accept a note from Mr. Zink, giving him until December 1, 1929, to square his account with the Chapter in order that he might be transferred at once from Brooklyn to Florida.

We are endeavoring to aid in the matter, and I therefore write direct to you and informally. If you will respond, and if you believe the Chapter would consider the suggestion herein, we will write to Mr. Zink and ask him to forward a note in order that the transfer may be effected.

I am indebted to the Brooklyn Chapter for dues and intend to pay them at once; just as soon as I can get in touch with the Secretary and find out what I owe.

The opportunity for doing good work here among the architects is a good one and I do not want let anything interfere with getting started. If there is anything I must do, other than pay my arrears to the Brooklyn Chapter please let me know.

Suspension
note

January 24, 1930

Dear Mr. Zink:

Your letter of January 9th. This is the first opportunity to respond.

It appears that your account with the Institute shows an indebtedness of $100.00, covering dues from 1927 to 1930 inclusive. In addition, there is an interest charge of $2.90 on the note which was due on December 31st.

We are really without authority to make an extension when the accumulated dues are for more than two years. However, I know that the Treasurer, Mr. Bergstrom, appreciates the conditions which exist in Florida, and that he wants to aid the Florida members in every way. We, therefore, send a note dated January 2, 1930, payable March 31, 1930. The amount of the note is for $77.90, covering the dues for the years 1927, 1928 and 1929. It is sent on the understanding that you will curtail it not less than $25.00 on the date due.

If this is acceptable, please execute the note and return it in order that we may make the proper notation on the account, as of January 31st.

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Treasurer.

Dear Mr. Zink:

The Treasurer will have to report to the Board of Directors at the pre-Convention meetings, which begin on May 17th, with regard to outstanding accounts.

Your indebtedness to the Institute for dues amounts to $100.00 and we have extended the time for closing the account on various occasions, and in the hope of giving you the fullest measure of cooperation.

This is in the nature of an informal letter to let you know that your indebtedness with others will have to be reported to the Board and that the Board, after the established procedure, will be practically obliged to discontinue your membership in the Institute and the Florida South Chapter, unless some reasonable payment on account has been made.

Can you not send a check for at least $25.00—as an evidence of good faith, in order to permit the Treasurer to make a recommendation that your membership be extended for the remainder of this year in order that the account may be put up to date by December 31st?

We hope very much to hear from you because the Institute values your affiliation.

Sept. 15, 1930.

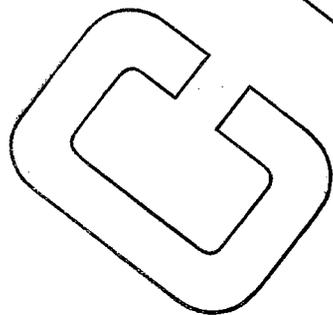

Mr. Anthony DeHaven Zink,
415 Seybold Building,
Miami, Florida.

My Dear Tony:

I was deeply pained to receive a copy of a letter from Mr. Kemper to Robinson advising him of the discontinuance of your membership in the Institute. I sincerely trust that your affairs may take such a happy turn in the early future as will permit you to come back into the fold. We will miss you very much Tony. I am in a position to sympathize very deeply with your predicament, having retired as gracefully as possible from all of my clubs for the same stern reason. I believe this winter will bring about a much needed change of the outlook. I certainly hope to see you back soon.

Cordially yours,

F. O. Adams.
