Mr. C. H. Whitaker,
Secretary,

Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Whitaker:--

I received your circular regarding the proposed change of name of the Journal.

I prefer the name as it is to any name suggested (the Journal of the American Institute of Architects is a plain statement of facts; any other name suggested in your letter of October the 30th leaves me in doubt).

Answering this letter (which is dated October the 30th and which was received by me December the 15th) is only an excuse to wish you a Happy Christmas and a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

No doubt the question of the name of the Journal has been settled long ago. We in the West receive our mail from the Institute very often a month after it is written, if the dates on the letter-head stand for anything. Therefore, if prompt action is taken in the East, the Architects in the West evidently have no voice in any decision of the Institute's activities.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Austin:-

Your letter of December 23rd has been referred to me by Mr. Whitaker, and I am sorry to note that your Institute mail comes to you as late as a month after it is dated. There is some serious discrepancy somewhere which I would like to locate in the interest of better service for you from the Institute. It is our endeavor to handle all correspondence and printed communications expeditiously. Will you not keep an eye on our communications in the future and let me know when delays occur?

Very sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. E. C. Kemper,
Executive Secretary,
"The Octagon House", Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Kemper:-- In writing to Mr. Whitaker relative to the delay in receiving mail, I referred to a condition that it may be impossible to rectify owing to the distance of Southern California from the center of activities in Washington.

I have noticed that action has been required by the Institute, and that a date has been set for decision on such action. The date that is set very often does not give a sufficient time for mail to reach the West and to return.

In setting dates for action, the Institute should always take into consideration that two weeks is required from the time that a letter is mailed in Washington until it can expect to return.

Consequently, I would suggest that when a general letter is being sent to the membership of the Institute that the letters that are to travel the longest distance be the ones sent first, and that those pertaining to New York, Pennsylvania and other Eastern States be the last that are sent; then it may be possible for the Western members to have some voice in the deciding of questions that pertain to the Institute's activity.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Austin:

Thank you for your letter of January 14 and its constructive suggestion. I am afraid we have not been allowing enough time for Pacific Coast mail. I usually figure on twelve days, but after this will endeavor to have a margin of at least two weeks. Of course, emergency matters may arise which will prevent the two weeks' margin, but they should not be often.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

RE: PUBLIC BUILDINGS BY PRIVATE ARCHITECTS.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

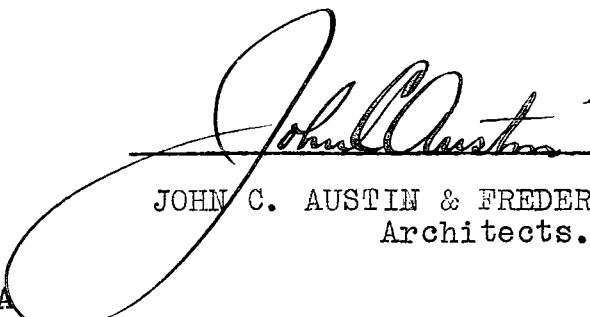

Would it be trespassing too much on your valuable time to request your assistance in ascertaining what "Federal" buildings, regardless of location, have been handed out to private architects say, during the past ten or fifteen years, and listing them by date, that is, giving the year each was built.

And, if it is possible to obtain the cost figures in every case, it would greatly help the cause we are endeavoring to promote locally with respect to the appointment of private architects to design public buildings.

I would esteem this a great favor and thank you accordingly. Reply at your earliest convenience would be greatly appreciated.

Hoping this will find you in good health, and wishing you "a very Happy New Year," I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Austin:

With further reference to your letter of January 8th, and our telegraphic response, we obtained from the Office of the Supervising Architect today a list of public buildings which have been designed by private architects since the repeal of the Tarsney Act, on August 24, 1912.

The Supervising Architect preferred to furnish the list informally and to this office, in so much as your letter was addressed to the Institute.

We send a copy of the list herewith.

With regard to any buildings constructed by the Department of the Interior or the Department of Justice, the Supervising Architect's Office suggests that you communicate direct with the two Departments concerned, as they do not like to vouch for information covering matters under the jurisdiction of other Departments.

Trusting the data will be of some service, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary.

Dear Miss Gervais:

Mr. A. S. Nibecker, Jr. FAIA has notified us that he will resign his membership in the Institute as of January 1, 1960. The Executive Committee of the Chapter recommends that he be elected a Member Emeritus and if you will forward the necessary application to me I will see that it is filled in and returned to you.

Mr. Nibecker is over 65 years of age and is semi-retired, has been a member of the Institute since 1923.

Will you also include forms for Mr. John C. Austin. Mr. Austin has retired is over 80 years old and has been a Fellow and Member of the Institute since 1913.

Re: Membership Emeritus

As requested in your letter of April 16th (received on the 20th) there are sent to you, herewith, two sets of forms for use in applying for membership emeritus.

It appears that Mr. John C. Austin is eligible, as he is 80 years of age and has been a member since 1902.

In the case of Mr. Nibecker, however, I am not so sure. You advise he is semi-retired, whereas the form states that where the member is 65 years of age he must also be retired. When members are 70 years of age or over, retirement does not enter into the picture; but at 65 years of age, it does.

It may be that Mr. Nibecker plans to be fully retired at the end of this year, in which case, of course, he would be eligible.

My dear Miss Austin:

We are sorry, indeed, to receive your note
advising of the death of John C. Austin,
FAIA, which we are noting on our records.
Instructions are being issued to remove his name from our mailing lists.

On behalf of the Officers and The Board of Directors of The Institute I wish to offer
our deepest sympathies to the family of John Austin.

Mr. Austin has been a member of the AIA since 1902 and a Fellow since 1913. His many years of activities in the ranks of his fellow architects and in The Institute on behalf of the profession as a whole will long be remembered
and he will be greatly missed.

Most sincerely yours,

Distinguished Works Included Many of Southland's Famous Landmark Buildings

John C. Austin, 93, architect of many of Southern California's landmark buildings, died late Tuesday at his home, 1000 Cordova St., Pasadena.

Mr. Austin was senior member of the architectural and engineering firm of Austin, Field & Fry.

His works included St. Paul's Catholic Church, the Griffith Park Observatory, St. Vincent's Hospital, the original Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Building and the first State Building in the Civic Center.

Mr. Austin also, in association with two other firms, designed and supervised construction of the Los Angeles City Hall.

Native of England

He was born in Bodicote, Oxfordshire, England, in 1870, came to the United States in 1890 and settled in San Francisco. He moved to Los Angeles in 1895 and began the practice of architecture when the city had a population of about 60,000.

Mr. Austin was regarded as the dean and among the most distinguished of California architects.

The most recent of his many honors was a commendation scroll presented last July by Mayor Samuel W. Yorty "for serving in an outstanding manner as a distinguished architect."

Presidential Aide

Mr. Austin also served the government at national, state and local levels. He was a member of President Roosevelt's Labor Mediation Board and the State Legislative Advisory Committee on Defense and Employment.

Mr. Austin had been a trustee of the County Art Institute, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and an organizer of the chamber's construction industries department.

He was one of a committee of seven named by the city in 1928 to adjust claims resulting from the San Fran-cisquito Dam disaster of that year.

John C. Austin

Mr. Austin held membership No. 1 in the Jonathan Club. He joined in 1903 and was president in 1916-17. He was also a member and former president of the Scribes, the Historical Society of Southern California, and a member of the Lincoln Club and Town Hall. He was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of Al Malaikah Shrine.

Mr. Austin is survived by his wife Dorothy; two sons, William G. Austin, San Diego, and Harold M. Austin, Canoga Park; five daughters, Mrs. Marjorie A. Fry, Pasadena; Gwendolen Austin, Los Angeles; Mrs. Violet H. Stauffer, New York City; Mrs. Angela M. Olcott, Villanova, Pa.; and Mrs. Phyllis J. Keithley, Bishop; 14 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday at All Saints Church, 132 N. Euclid Ave., Pasadena. Dr. John Frank Scott, director emeritus, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Colin Keyes. Burial services at Mountain View Mausoleum, Altadena, will be private.

ALBRIGHT, HARRISON, Architect, was born in Shoemakertown (now Ogontz), Pa., May 17, 1866. His father was Joseph Albright, and his mother Louise Adele Jeannot. On Oct. 23, 1890, he married Susie J. Bemis at Ripley Crossing, N. Y. There are three children—Anna Louise, Catharine M., and Harrison Bemis.

HARRISON ALBRIGHT

Portrait by Marceau

He was educated in the public schools, and in Pierce College of Business and Spring Garden Inst., Philadelphia, winning several prizes for drawing at the latter. April 28, 1886, he opened offices there, and for five years did much residential and public work. Removing in 1891 to Charlestown, W. Va., he was architect for the following public buildings: Capitol Annex; Dormitory and Library Annexes to Marshall College, and four buildings, W. Va. Asylum, Huntington; Miners' Hospital, Fairmont; Shepherd College, State Normal School; Prep. Branch W. Va. University, Keyser. The last five years of his practice at Charlestown was limited to fireproof hotels, including "The Washington," Portsmouth, O.; "The Richmond," Richmond, Va.; "The Waldo," Clarksburg, W. Va., and "The West Baden (Ind.) Springs Hotel," the atrium of which is covered by the largest dome in the world.

March 28, 1905, Mr. Albright opened offices in Los Angeles. He has designed and superintended the construction of the Laughlin Annex, L. A.; U. S. Grant Hotel, San Diego; and for J. D. Spreckels the Union Bldg. and his residence at Coronado, as well as the Public Library given by him. He has also done much work for the Santa Fé. He is now engaged over the erection of the Consolidated Realty Bldg., L. A., the Timken Bldg., San Diego, and the Security Bldg., Phoenix.

He is a member of So. Cal. Chapter, American Institute of Architects, Jonathan Club, and L. A. Athletic Club.

AUSTIN, JOHN CORNEBY WILSON, Architect, was born at Bodicote, near Bambury, Oxfordshire, England, February 13, 1870. His father was Richard Wilson Austin, and his mother Jane Elizabeth Austin. He has been twice married, his first wife being Louisa Elizabeth Bell (deceased). In September, 1902, he married Hilda Violet Mytton, at Los Angeles. He has four children—Dorothy, Marjorie, Ada and William.

Mr. Austin received his education at private schools in London, Leamington, and at Ramsgate, England.

He came to California in 1892 from Philadelphia, Pa., and located in Los Angeles in 1894. Since coming he has done much of the important work of this section. The names of some of the principal buildings of which he has been the architect follow: Potter Hotel, Santa Barbara; Leighton, Alvarado and Fremont Hotels, Los Angeles; Wright & Callender Building; First M. E. Church, Los Angeles, and First M. E. Church, Pasadena; California Hospital, Angeles Hospital, Southern California College of Medicine, College of Physicians and Surgeons, University of Southern California, Harvard Military Academy, and the Madam Ida Hancock residence.

He is an associate member of the American Institute of Architects and a member of the
