Dear Mr. Wong:

We are pleased to receive your application for readmission, your check for $35, and the favorable recommendation of your chapter for your re-election.

However, former members are not permitted to pay dues on the graduated scale in effect for brand new members. Instead, they are asked to pay the then regular dues, the readmission fee and any outstanding past dues in arrears.

Regular annual dues are now $84 and the readmission fee, $10. This leaves a balance of $59 we would need in order to take final action on your application.

If you will kindly send us a check in that amount, we shall see that prompt and final action is taken.

You advised us and Mr Wong that the Board could not act on the application because the check submitted was insufficient ----Mr. Wong had previously been a member of the Institute and should have submitted the regular yearly dues along with the readmission fee, instead of the first year's dues.

Mr. Wong has now decided that he wishes to proceed with his application for readmission and has submitted to us the enclosed check in the amount of $98.00. You apprently still have his application and other documents as they were not returned to us.

Dear Mr. Wong:

Thank you for your letter dated November 16 and check for $125.00.

However, you did not complete the invoice we sent to the chapter as applied to supplemental dues. Your stationery on which your firm is identified as "Wong Associates" would indicate liability.

Please complete the invoice -- items 3 and 3a and return to my attention with payment. Meanwhile, ^{we} will hold your check for $125.00.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Hon. AIA
