October 16, 1924.

My dear Mr. Wohleb:-

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective October 16, 1924.

You have been assigned to the Washington State Chapter as an Institute member in good standing therein, and the Secretary of the Chapter has been so advised.

Enclosed herewith is statement covering dues for the last quarter of the current year.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Secretary at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we shall be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

General Background: (Personal Characteristics and Accomplishments; Interests, Digressions, Travels, Friendships, Side-lights, Honors, and Awards.)

Joseph H. Wohleb, Sr., was a man of unquestioned character, honest above reproach with himself, friends, clients, employees, and with all others whom he came in contact; a rugged individualist and a master of perfection. He started many young men out as "tracers"; constantly encouraged them in architecture and helped many of them through architectural schools and on to success in the profession.
