Miss Florence H. Gervais

Dear Miss Gervais:

Answering yours of March 27th, Mr. Julius Eckman sent us a note reading: "I herewith submit my resignation to take effect September 1954." Upon receipt of same, I called him on the 'phone and learned that he had also submitted his resignation to the National Institute in Washington. Upon this advice, I wrote you as per our letter of March 3rd, assuming that you had received his resignation which he said he had sent to you.

This is the complete information I have on the subject.

Sincerely

M. Henkel

Dear Mrs. Henkel:

Your letter of April 2nd concerning Mr. Julius Eckmann arrived promptly, and I have been holding it in case we should hear something from him.

However, to date he has not sent in his resignation and has paid his Institute dues for 1954.

Therefore, I hate to approach him about a possible resignation. He may have thought better of it and decided to continue.

What do you suggest?

Shall we hold the matter in abeyance and find out what happens when he gets his bill for his next year's chapter dues?

Sincerely,

(Miss) Florence H. Gervais

Dear Mr. Eckmann:

A note from you which accompanied the payment of your dues on February 24th, 1954, indicated that you wished to submit your resignation to take effect September 30, 1954. The Octagon in Washington has not received word from you that you wish to resign from the National A.I.A., and it is our hope that this means you have reconsidered and would like to remain a member of the A.I.A.

With best regards and trusting that you will want to continue your membership, I am,

Very sincerely yours
