My dear Sir:

Acting for the Secretary, I am pleased to advise you of your election to membership in the American Institute of Architects, effective January 2, 1917.

You will receive later the Proceedings of the Fiftieth Convention; and the Year Book for 1917, which in addition to the membership records contains the official documents of the Institute relating to matters of professional practice.

The enclosed statement for dues should receive early attention, as the engrossed Certificate of Membership is not sent until the dues for the first year have been paid, and election becomes void for non-payment within three months of this date.

May I take this opportunity to say that the office of the Institute at the Octagon is for the service of every Institute member. Should the occasion arise, we will be glad to give you our best cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Wilbur T. Trueblood,

Dear Mr. Kemper:

I regret the necessity of informing you of the death Sunday night last of Mr. Wilbur T. Trueblood, a Fellow of the Institute. I do not know what cognizance the Institute takes of such losses from our ranks, but felt that you should have the information in order that you might follow any customary procedure.

Mr. Trueblood's funeral is this afternoon, and a considerable number of his fellow architects will be honorary pall-bearers. We deeply regret this loss, and feel that both our Chapter and the Institute suffers thereby.

I shall see you in Boston next week.

Very sincerely yours,

[Handwritten Signature]
