Dear Ed:

Matt Rockwell has asked me to reply to your letter of June 26th. I would say that Judge Biddle has asked you a loaded question about Rolf Myller.

This young architect was one of the finalists in the Roosevelt Memorial competition which stamps him as a man with talent and ability. I understand he is still a relatively young man and has hardly had time to achieve the stature of some of his more famous colleagues whom we ordinarily think of as outstanding architects.

Since Mr. Myller is a member of the New York Chapter of the Institute, I should think Judge Biddle or you could get information about him, including some objective appraisal of his qualifications, from such people as Fritz Woodbridge, President of the New York Chapter, or Morris Ketchum, our Regional Director from New York, or Bob Cutler who was formerly a President of the New York Chapter.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Scheick, AIA
Executive Director
