Gentlemen:

As a member of the executive committee of the Westchester Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, I join with my fellow members in recommending Kenneth Kingsley Stowell to you for advancement to a fellowship in the Institute.

Mr. Stowell was largely responsible for the unification of the two architectural societies in Westchester County. The joining of the Westchester Society of Architects with the Westchester Chapter, A. I. A. in 1944, was the direct result of his efforts.

As editor-in-chief of our leading architectural journals for the past twenty years, Mr. Stowell has immeasurably contributed to the furthering of the interests of the architectural profession, as well as promoting, with the public, a better appreciation and understanding of the profession.

We, of the Westchester Chapter, are proud to present Mr. Stowell's name to your group for consideration.

Very truly yours

Gentlemen:

Our records show that Kenneth Kingsley Stowell, having been admitted to the Institute as a corporate member in 1927, was one of the group which organized, applied for and was granted the charter for the Westchester Chapter in 1936.

Since that time Mr. Stowell has maintained not only his good standing in the Chapter, but his active interest in its affairs both as member and officer.

He was President of the Chapter in 1944 and largely responsible for the negotiations which resulted in the unification of the Westchester County Society with the Westchester Chapter of the Institute.

As Secretary of the Westchester Chapter, as a member of the Institute and as an Architect, I heartily recommend consideration of Mr. Stowell for Fellowship.

WESTCHESTER CHAPTER
THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS June 21, 1949

The Board of Directors and the Members of the Westchester Chapter of The American Institute of Architects, unanimously passed the following resolution:

Recommendation for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute, of Kenneth K. Stowell.

1. For the past twenty years Kenneth K. Stowell has been the Editor of three of the foremost architectural magazines in the country, and as such his articles and editorials have always furthered the interests of the architects and promoted an understanding and appreciation of the architect by the public. His philosophy of design and architectural practice has had a very definite influence throughout the nation.

2. Mr. Stowell was President of the Westchester County Society of Architects, and the first President of the Westchester Chapter of The American Institute of Architects, and through his diligent efforts was instrumental in causing the unification of the Westchester Society of Architects with The American Institute of Architects.

3. Kenneth K. Stowell has contributed much to public service during the past ten years. He has been Chairman of the Architectural Advisory Commission of Bronxville, N.Y., Architectural Advisor for the Recreation Council of Bronxville, N.Y., and serves on Church Building Committee of the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational and Christian Churches.

4. He has given freely of his time and talents in the educational field to further the architectural profession, having been Secretary to the Beau Arts Institute of Design for many years.

5. We, therefore, the Board of Directors and the Members of the Westchester Chapter of The American Institute of Architects, at a regular meeting unanimously recommend to the Jury of Fellows of The American Institute of Architects, that Mr. Kenneth K. Stowell be favorably considered for advancement to Fellowship in the Institute.

Member of New York Chapter, American Institute of Architects, 1927.

Charter Member and First President of Westchester Chapter, A.I.A. 1936-38

Past President of Westchester Society of Architects

Largely through the continuous efforts of Kenneth Stowell, the members of the Westchester Society joined the Westchester Chapter of the American Institute of Architects in 1944. The Westchester Chapter thus more than doubled its membership and effectiveness during the second term of presidency of Mr. Stowell; and the Chapter became the sole architectural organization in the county.

Mr. Stowell contributed to the publication "Architecture, a Profession and a Career," published by the American Institute in 1945.

Mr. Stowell served both the New York Chapter and the Westchester Chapter on many committees throughout his twenty years membership including Resolution Committee; Technical Committee, Public Relations Committee; Civic Design Committee, etc.

Mr. Stowell also served on various committees of the New York State Association of Architects.

Past President of the Architectural League of New York 1945 - 1946

Activity in Beaux-Arts Institute of Design as previously mentioned under Education Work, Page 5.

July 6, 1949

Dear Mr. Voss:

On behalf of The Jury of Fellows, this will acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 5th, with which you forwarded nomination papers for the advancement of Mr. Kenneth Kingsley Stowell, A.I.A., to fellowship in The Institute; copy of a resolution passed by the Westchester Chapter relating thereto; and photographs and printed articles as exhibits in support of the nomination.

May I call to your attention that a nomination on behalf of Mr. Stowell already is before the Jury, as it was made and filed by the Chapter in October, 1947, and is due to be submitted for consideration for the third time at the next meeting of the Jury.

Accordingly, the supplementary documents and data received with yours of July 5th will be added to the file of the Jury in Mr. Stowell's case, and called to its attention when it meets again, in 1950.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to
The Jury of Fellows

Mr. Frederick H. Voss, President
Westchester Chapter, A.I.A.
82 Catskill Avenue
Yonkers, 4, New York

Copy to the Chairman,
The Jury of Fellows, A.I.A.

April 17, 1950

Dear Mr. Stowell:

In accordance with the rules and the procedure of The Jury of Fellows of The Institute, nominations to advance members to fellowship in The Institute which have been before the Jury for three separate meetings without favorable action are no longer eligible for consideration.

At the direction of the Chairman of The Jury of Fellows we are returning the photographs which accompanied the proposal of your name and trust that you will find them in good order.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to
The Jury of Fellows

Mr. Kenneth K. Stowell, A.I.A.
