Dear Mr. Stott:

The Secretary is happy to inform you that your application for membership in The Institute was acted on favorably by The Board of Directors and that you were admitted to corporate membership in The Institute and assigned to membership in the Pennsylvania Society of Architects, a Chapter of that A.I.A., effective March 25, 1949. You will be a member of that Chapter, or of some other Chapter if you later transfer thereto, until your membership in The Institute terminates.

Your certificate of membership, duly executed by the Officers of The Institute, will be sent in due course.

The Board of Directors welcomes you to membership in The Institute and The Secretary's office is at your service to the extent of its powers.

The policies and the activities of The Institute are developed largely from problems arising within the chapters. By taking an active part in your Chapter affairs, you will contribute to the advancement of the objects of The Institute and will increase the benefits to be derived from Institute membership.

We bespeak your active cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

General Background: (Personal Characteristics and Accomplishments; Interests, Digressions, Travels, Friendships, Side-lights, Honors, and Awards.)

During the war, Charles Herbert Stott served the United States Navy principally in repairing battle damage in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. After the war, his chief outside interest was in the United States Naval Reserves.

All of us who knew him well, including draftsmen, fellow architects, contractors and material men, were impressed with his high degree of personal integrity. He was also exceptionally well regarded because of his very even temperament and the ability to get along with people under the most trying circumstances.
