Dear Sir:

Your application for membership in The Institute was received here with your check for $10.00 attached. Your desire to become a member of The Institute is appreciated by The Board.

Your attention is called to the revision in dues, voted by the 1951 Convention of The Institute, and by The Board of Directors.

As of July 1, 1951, the first year's dues shall be $10.00 per year and dues shall be increased each succeeding year by $10.00, until regular dues are being paid.

At the present time, regular dues are either $25.00 or $40.00, depending upon whether the net professional income of the member is, or is not, under $5,000.00 per annum.

Your application is in due order except that an additional payment of $5.00 is required for your first year's dues. As soon as this payment is received The Secretary will do everything he can to expedite its progress.

You will be notified promptly of the result of The Board's action on your application.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

December 1, 1951

I am pleased to inform you that your application for membership in The Institute was acted on favorably by The Board of Directors and that you were admitted to corporate membership in The Institute and assigned as indicated below.

You will be a member of the listed organizations, unless you later transfer therefrom, until your membership in The Institute terminates.

Your certificate of membership, duly executed by the Officers of The Institute, will be sent in due course.

The Board of Directors welcomes you to membership in The Institute, and my office is at your service to the extent of its powers.

The policies of The Institute are developed largely from activities within the chapters and State organizations. By taking an active part in their affairs, you will contribute to the advancement of the objects of The Institute and will increase the benefits to be derived from Institute membership.

I bespeak your active cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary
