Dear Mr. Warwick:

Your application for corporate membership in The Institute and its Washington-Metropolitan Chapter has been received along with your check for $20.00.

However, we cannot take action on your application until we receive certification that you are currently registered to practice architecture in the District of Columbia.

According to the records of the D. C. Board of Examiners & Registrars of Architects, your registration was last renewed on May 9, 1957.

When this is brought up to date, we shall be happy to proceed with further processing on your application.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Harvey Warwick, AIA

Dear Mr. Warwick:

As you requested on the phone yesterday, we are sending you an application for Membership Emeritus.

Upon checking your record here, I find that you have not completed 15 years of AIA membership. You were elected on December 22, 1959. This requirement may be lessened by the Secretary, however, and he usually does so if the local chapter involved so recommends.

Hence, after you complete the application, please send it to Mrs. Joan Milstead, Executive Secretary of the Washington-Metropolitan Chapter, with a request that the chapter consider recommending that the requirement which calls for 15 years of AIA membership be lessened for you. I'm sure Mrs. Milstead will see that the matter receives early consideration. Her address is 1777 Church St., NW, Washington, D. C. 20036.

We notice also that you are in arrears for 1969 AIA dues. If the payment of these dues would create an undue hardship on you, you will also want to ask the chapter to recommend that your election be made retroactive to the first of the year.

Sincerely yours,

Maureen Marx, Manager

Application for Membership Emeritus

TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS:

I wish to apply for Membership Emeritus in The Institute for the following reasons:

Check the appropriate reason

- I am more than 70 years of age.
- I am 65 years of age, retired, and not engaged in the practice of architecture.
- I am unable to engage in the practice of architecture.

I have been in good standing in The Institute and the No records chapter for 15 successive years or more immediately preceding the date of this application.

Date Nov 6 1969

Dear Mrs. Marx:

At its meeting of December 2, 1969, the Executive Board of this Chapter voted to request that Harvey Warwick be granted a waiver of the requirement of fifteen years good standing for emeritus status (application attached).

They also acted to declare Arthur P. Davis in good standing with the Chapter, thereby approving his request for emeritus status.

Philip Frohman is in good standing with us and, as you say, is just about as eligible as he can be according to our records.

As for Charles Pope, he is also in good standing. As a transfer from Northern California, I know about the 15 year thing - but otherwise, he is OK for emeritus.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. C. R. Milstead

Harvey H. Warwick, 79, an architect and builder, died Sunday at Suburban Hospital after suffering a heart attack. He had helped design the Westchester Apartments at 4000 Cathedral Ave. NW, and also Colonial Village in Arlington, which was considered a pioneer in garden-type apartments.

Born in Kansas City, Mo., Mr. Warwick came to Washington as a young man. He was in partnership with Louis Justement at one time and then had his own business. He was in semiretirement in recent years.

Mr. Warwick was a member of the American Institute of Architects, D.C. and Maryland architect organizations, the American Hemerocalles Society and the National Capitol Day Lily Club.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy McDermott Warwick, of the home, 5910 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda; a son, Harvey Jr., of St. Petersburg, and two grandchildren.
